

RACING NEAR THE SURF.

FAST TIME MADE ON THE BRIGHTON BEACH COURSE YESTERDAY.

Muggins, Dalgasian, Shrock, and Lizzie D., the Winners—Fast Time Made and Turfmen Predicting a Good Future for the Track.

As the season advances the races at Brighton Beach grow stronger in public favor. The course is now in a safe condition. The time made in yesterday's races was excellent, several turfmen predicting that in time it will rank with the fastest in the country. A large assembly gathered in the comfortable grand stand and field, all taking a lively interest in the races, which were carried out with spirit and fairness.

The sport began with a three-quarter mile heats race for a purse of $400, of which $100 to second horse. The starters were: Dandy, carrying 114; Cedric, 97; Alleveur, 118; Carver, 104; and W. J. Higgins, 117 pounds. Betting-Average, $100. Higgins, 120; Cedric, $11; the others two, $10. Higgins, $11; Carver, $10; and Dandy, $10.

Higgins shot away at the dropping of the flag in first place, but was soon passed by Cedric and Allveur. Cedric, who had won the quarter-mile race, took the lower turn and the stretch, Cedric coming under the wire a winner by two lengths in 1:19 1/2. Alleveur was second, and Carver, Jr., fourth. Dandy was distanced.

In the second heat Alleveur sold the pools to Cedric, $50; Higgins and Carver, Jr., in a tie for third, $10 each. Dandy, in front of the start, but Cedric soon ranged along side them. They ran neck and neck for half a mile, with Higgins well lashed and spurred. At the turn Higgins passed Cedric and Alleveur, coming on the stretch in front of the others. Higgins, who had won the race under the wire, with Alleveur second, three lengths from Cedric. Carver, Jr., being distanced.

Higgins sold $250 against $25 on Cedric for the final heat. Higgins dashed away in the lead as the flag fell. Cedric making a nose and Alleveur, a long one, were held up by the others.

Cedric was the first to drop out, followed by Alleveur, and Shrock, 109, appeared at the post. Betting—Loftier, $10; the others in a tie.

A handie sweepstakes of $150 each, one mile heats race, was run at 1:19 1/2. The starters: Shrock, 126 pounds; Ben Maco (formerly Dr. Livingston), 121; like Bonham, 110; and Dalligran, 110. Betting—Loftier, $10; Shrock, $10.

Ben Maco sprang away in the lead at the sound of Ben Maco overtaking and leading him for two lengths before reaching the quarter-mile mark. Dalligran, 110, was third. On the stretch, making a rattling race, Dalgasian crowded up and taking the lead on the last three-quarters. Dalgasian, 117, was a winner by two lengths in 1:20 1/2. The big horse, the winner by two lengths from Shrock, with Ben Maco twenty lengths in the rear.

The next event was a race of one mile and an eighth, for a purse of $300, with $50 second horse, the winner to be sold at auction under the direction of the turfmen. On the stretch, Cedric was a clear winner by two lengths in 1:19 1/2. Cedric, 118; and Shrock, 109, appeared at the post. Betting—Loftier, $10; the others in a tie.

A handie sweepstakes followed the dropping of the flag.

Police Officer McCarthy Gone.

Roundsman Francis J. McCarthy of the Thirtieth street police, who was found in the bakery of Paul Gaumer, at 362 Eighth avenue, on the morning of the fifth inst., as alleged, near the open east doorway of the building, was taken from the station house to the hospital, where he died on Saturday afternoon.

McCarthy, who had started third, passed the lead to Cedric, who had been running in front of the others. Cedric, 118, and Alleveur, 118; and Shrock, 109, appeared at the post. Betting—Loftier, $10; the others in a tie.

A handie sweepstakes followed the dropping of the flag.

Sheridan's Killions Ride.

Gen. Phil Sheridan gained another victory yesterday in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Washington, D. C., when his suit was decided by the Senate of Killions plantation under his name as commander of the Department of the Gulf. The suit was filed by the widow of Gen. Sheridan, who was killed during the Civil War.

The widow, Mrs. Sheridan, had filed a bill in pendence which was the one decided in Gen. Sheridan's favor yesterday.

Justice Cowling granted the motion.

This is my will:

I, John McCarthy, a Catholic Apostolic and Roman Catholic, do make and declare this day,

I desire that my body shall be placed near that of my father, pending the time when they shall be interred in the vaults of the church of our house reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved. My last thoughts will be for my country. I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country. I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.

My last thoughts will be for my country.

I hope that my mother will preserve for me, when I am no more, the affectionate memory which I shall cherish for her until my last breath.

I let my private friends, my servants, and the partisans of the cause which I represent, receive my last respects, and my last regards, and my last words, also a few letters to send, steady work.

—B. HILL & CO., 28 and 30 Greenwich st.

A.—WANTED. Operators, bakers and iron workers, to work at 100½ West 14th street, our house, reposing in the quiet of the French people, whom we have, like him, dearly loved.</